SALE POSTPONED TO MAY 25, 1985

TERMS OF SALE

1. This is an unrestricted mail bid auction sale. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Bids are to be entered by lot number as catalogued. Bidders should feel free to bid as much as they want, realizing that all bids are treated as limits, and that all lots will be sold below these limits when competition allows. At the same time, the cataloguer reserves the right to reject totally ridiculous bids, or those bids which in his sole opinion are not entered in good faith. Closing date of this sale is Saturday, May 18, 1985. Bids will be accepted until 6:00 p.m. P.D.T. on this date. Telephone bids will be accepted for this sale.
2. A BUYER'S PREMIUM OF TEN PERCENT (10%) WILL BE ADDED TO EACH LOT.
3. Prices estimated following each lot reflect, in the cataloguer's opinion, the current market, and are intended solely as a guide to bidders. You may bid more or less as you wish; however, bids which fall substantially below the estimated values are generally not successful.
4. California state sales tax of 6% will be added to the cost of all lots delivered within the state of California unless a valid resale number is on file with us. Likewise, sales tax of 6½% will be added to the cost of all lots delivered within the BART District of the state of California.
5. Mail bid sales are not approval sales. By submitting your bids, you agree to all terms of sale stated herein. No lots may be returned without written permission, and all requests for such permission must be made in writing within three (3) days of receipt of lots. All books are as described. We do realize that there exists the possibility of errors and typographical mistakes. Any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot, however, be responsible for your errors; so please check your bid sheets carefully.
6. Bidders unknown to us are required to submit credit references (trade references are acceptable), or a deposit equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the total bids.
7. A charge of one percent (1%) per month will be added to the total price of any invoice unpaid for over thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice. Bidders will be liable for any attorney and/or court fees incurred in the collection of past due accounts.
8. There is no charge for executing your bids. However, all successful bidders will be invoiced for all postage and insurance. In addition, there will be a fifty cents (50¢) handling charge per lot to cover handling and packaging.
9. Terms of this sale are strictly cash, payable in United States funds. Payment is due upon receipt of invoice. Title to all lots remains with the cataloguer until paid for in full. We reserve the right to withhold delivery of lots until payment has been made.
10. All lots will be shipped via U. S. mail unless instructions are sent with bids, requesting alternate mode of delivery.
11. Thank you for your bids.

CONSIGNMENT "I"

The following long run of American auction catalogues are, for the most part, relatively common, but at the same time, many of these are sought to fill gaps in the various series. In order to offer as many as possible, the descriptions will be limited to dealer name, name of sale, date(s) of sale, and whether or not prices realized lists are included. Unless otherwise stated the pieces will be fine or better in condition. Trivial defects will not be mentioned unless they affect the utilitarian value of the item.

CONSIGNMENT "N"

The following consignment offers an unusual opportunity for the numismatic bibliophile to acquire many of the very scarce early issues of "The Numismatist," official journal of the American Numismatic Association. The run consists of a nearly complete set of this fine periodical commencing with the 1894 volume. It is lacking only a scattered issue here and there, and these are noted in the individual lot descriptions. Prior to offering the items, I would like to present the following piece authored by the late Farran Zerbe, long-time A.N.A. historian. It first appeared in the "Index to The Numismatist; Volumes 1 to 51 (1888-1938)," published in 1940.

THE NUMISMATIST - ITS STORY

As Historian of the American Numismatic Association I have been asked to record essential facts regarding The Numismatist, official publication of the Association, to accompany the Index of its first fifty volumes.

The Numismatist of today, a well-illustrated monthly magazine of standard size with over a thousand pages composing a calendar-year volume and first of its class in circulation and advertising patronage, has evolved from a four-page leaflet 6 by 8 inches, Vol. I, No. 1, entitled The American Numismatist, free to customers, dated September-October, 1888. The baby Numismatist, announced to be issued bi-monthly, contents mostly the issuer's offerings of coins for sale, was produced by an enthusiastic numismatic student and collector who had but little time and means for the subject - Doctor George Francis Heath, Monroe, Michigan, an ideal country doctor in character and administration. It was a home product on a hand press, copy, composition, printing and distribution all being a hobby pleasure of the producer. Six issues, 26 pages in all, completed Vol. I. Vol. II, with pages a little smaller than Vol. I, began March, 1890. American was dropped from the title. Twelve issues completed the volume of 48 pages.

Volume III, January, 1891, to Volume VI, December, 1893, inclusive, pages 6 by 8 inches, are uniform in makeup and were printed in Detroit. "And Year Book" was a part of the title to October, 1893. Announced as a semi-monthly at fifty cents a year with a coin "worth 30 to 50 cents" to every subscriber, it soon became a monthly. As numbered, four volumes covered three years, 1892 having two six-month volumes. Up to 200 pages a year of good reading and various advertisements, a roster of the collectors and dealers of the period. With Vol. VII, 1894, 288 pages, the present size was introduced and has continued since then.

When The Numismatist was in its third volume, February, 1891, its publisher asked, "What's the matter with having an American Numismatic Association? Would it be profitable? Would it be practicable? All in favor of such a scheme, send in your names." The published exchange of ideas with Plain Talk, a New York publication with a coin department edited by Charles T. Tatman, Worcester, Massachusetts, led to a call for a national organization that was completed at a meeting held in Chicago, October, 1891, when The American Numismatic Association was organized. Plain Talk was designated as the Association's Official Organ, but was soon succeeded by The Numismatist. Dr. Heath received and will have everlasting honored credit for being the Founder of the Association.

Dr. Heath continued to publish The Numismatist, all the time at considerable personal sacrifice, up to the time of his sudden death, June 16, 1908, in his fifty-eighth year.

The Doctor had builded better than he knew. The Association grew beyond anticipation not only in membership but in contributors and desires for a broader publication field.

At the time of Dr. Heath's death Farran Zerbe was serving a second year as President of the Association. A few months previous to the Doctor's death, Mr. Zerbe visited him at his home and sought his disposition regarding parting with the magazine. The Doctor's answer, with emotion, was: "Zerbe, The Numismatist is my baby. I like it and I want to care for it until it is twenty-five years old. After that we can talk." The Doctor died with the magazine in its 20th year.

The magazine was the membership's connecting link and its uninterrupted continuance was vital for the life of the Association. With the approval of the Board of Governors, Mr. Zerbe acquired the magazine from the Heath estate, assuming uncompleted contracts for subscriptions and advertising. Dr. Heath's last issue was for June, 1908. The July issue was produced for the Heath estate by A. B. Bragdon, Jr., Doctor Heath's long-time printer, Monroe, Michigan. Following issues from 1908 were edited from Tyrone, Pa., printing and mailing being continued at Monroe.

Commencing with Vol. XXII, 1909, publication was from Philadelphia, Pa. The general makeup was changed and a yellow cover was adopted for the blue that had previously been used. Subscription was $1.50, and uniform and worthwhile advertising rates were established. Howland Wood, Edgar H. Adams and Frank C. Higgins were valued associate editors and co-operators in the ambition for a greater magazine. A considerable increase in subscriptions, particularly from libraries, and greater advertising patronage were developed. Trial proved it a too limited class publication for profitable general news-stand sale.

In 1910 the Association at its convention held in New York voted to acquire The Numismatist, Mr. Zerbe having made it known that his then traveling work would prevent his continuing publication after the close of that year. Through the generosity of W. W. C. Wilson, of Montreal, Canada, The Numismatist was acquired and presented to the Association, whose first issue was for 1911, Vol. XXIV. Control, which has continued since then, was by the Board of Governors. There was a return to a blue cover and other notable changes. During 1911 publication was from Worcester, Massachusetts. Albert R. Frey, New York City, was editor, with Edgar H. Adams and George H. Blake associate editors, and G. L. Tilden, Worcester, Massachusetts, business manager. Mr. Frey, a past President of the Association, was a scholarly gentleman and an authority on Far Eastern coins. They were succeeded in 1912, Vol. XXV, by Edgar H. Adams, Brooklyn, New York, as editor and business manager, and printed at Federalsburg, Maryland. Mr. Adams had long been well known as a numismatic writer for the general press, with a wide knowledge of the subject and a specialist in several divisions, particularly the private coinage of California. Mr. Adams retired with the August issue, 1915.

Commencing with September, 1915, the editorship and management have been ably conducted by Frank G. Duffield, Baltimore, Maryland, printing and distribution from Federalsburg. An ideal combination of abilities have been proven by Mr. Duffield - scholar, numismatist, printer, photographer and business man.

The first six volumes, all of small format, and brief treatment of subjects, contain little now of practical reference value. The major subjects treated have been done over in more detail by specialists and are scattered through the later volumes. More compositions by specialists commence with Vol. VII, 1894. As is true with many subjects, time has brought forth new facts and corrections.

Less than ten complete sets of The Numismatist are known. A well-bound, fine condition set is valued up to $300 (this was 1938 -C.W.). Vols. I and II are unobtainable; only of passing interest at the time of issue, they were discarded. Vols. III to VI are rare. Volumes from VII on, of which there has been a reserve supply, are frequently offered in sales. A considerable lot, Vols. VII to XXIII, held in storage, were destroyed by dampness. Doctor Heath's estate did not have a complete set to offer. The Doctor's working set began with Vol. III.

As a feature of the Columbus (Ohio) convention, 1938, Donald R. Heath, the Doctor's son, of Grosse Point Park, Michigan, printed a reproduction of Vol. I, No. 1, on the original press. This much-prized souvenir was liberally distributed by Mr. Heath.

The Numismatist and the American Numismatic Association are lasting monuments of a kindly man whose success as a physician carried with it much charity, a good citizen who served his town in many ways, including that of Mayor, and enjoyed his hobby to the end, particularly in aiding the new collector - Doctor George Francis Heath.

The consignor of the present offering wrote the following: "Many of the early Numismatists are from a hoard from Farran Zerbe... I kept no record (of which ones), but they are easy to distinguish because of their condition. (They comprise the years) 1894 through 1900, 1905, 1906, 1909 and 1912.

"Approximately fifteen years ago two local antique dealers had very close to 300 Numismatists of the dates listed, all from Zerbe. His home was in Tyrone, Pa."
